MANUFACTURING INFO

At the apex of industry: Oregon Timber Frame

A £45m, 186,000 sq ft production facility for Oregon Timber Frame has reached practical completion at Infinity Park Derby. Owned by Barratt Homes, Oregon supports its goal of carbon-neutral operations by 2030. The energy-efficient building features solar PV, air source heat pumps, LED lighting, and EV charging for 10% of parking spaces.

The platform for enterprising occupiers

Infinity Park Derby has Enterprise Zone status, providing benefits for occupiers, including potential:

- Assistance with local recruitment

Additional benefits include assistance with familiarisation visits for staff, access to grants via the Derby City Council Economic Growth Team and incubation, training and consultancy support from Enscite.

Infinity Park Derby also enjoys access to programmes such as the Ascend Programme, together with support from Derby City Council and D2N2 (Local Enterprise Partnership).

Nuclear Skills Academy

The Derby Nuclear Skills Academy is a 45,000 sq ft training and innovation centre developed by Rolls-Royce, the University of Derby, NAMRC, and Derby City Council. It trains 200+ nuclear technicians at a time in high-spec offices and workshops, featuring cutting-edge tech like rapid prototyping, VR, 3D printing, and surface microscopes. The site includes a multi-purpose 'heart space' for events. Formerly iHub, it highlights the growing skills economy at Infinity Park.

Nuclear AMRC Midlands

The 46,728 sq ft Nuclear Advanced Manufacturing Research Centre (NAMRC) at Infinity Park Derby has reached practical completion. Part of the UK High Value Manufacturing Catapult, it connects industrial supply chains with zero-carbon energy research. Backed by HM Government, Derby City Council, and the University of Derby, it reinforces Infinity Park Derby as a key hub for industry and innovation.

MAJOR GLOBAL MANUFACTURERS WITHIN 20 MINUTES DRIVE OF INFINITY PARK INCLUDE:

Advanced research, practical applications

Derby continues to leverage its position as one of the UK's cutting edge industrial cities. An enviable roster of blue chip industrial companies, allied to a strong regional knowledge economy, means that Infinity Park Derby is ideally placed to create value throughout every link of the supply chain.

Make smart connections at Infinity Park Derby

Infinity Park Derby is ideally positioned to address massive consumer and industrial markets across the region, the UK and the world.

Located at the heart of the UK motorway network, Infinity Park Derby offers direct access to J3 of the A50, the vital east-west route crossing the Midlands. Capping each end of the A50, the M1 and M6 provide north-south links, bringing London, Bristol, Liverpool and York within 3 hour's journey by HGV.

2.25 million consumers live within 45 minutes by van, while well over 40 million are addressable within a 4 hour HGV drive, making Infinity Park Derby well placed for last mile, regional and national distribution operations. And with East Midlands Airport only 20 minutes away and all the UK's major deep sea ports within a single 4.5 hour HGV journey, Infinity Park Derby is ideally situated for global exports.
